thermaBliss® Stones®, thermaBliss® Shells®, Glacial Shells® & ThermaHerbal Poultice®

The thermaBliss Massage Collection features on-demand warming and cooling tools for thermal massage treatments that soothe customers' debilitating stress and strain. At the same time, natural ergonomic design helps therapists avoid injury and extend their career.

thermaBliss Stones and thermaBliss Shells are offered in multiple ergonomic sizes and shapes, materials (natural/ceramic), and allow therapists to select the best option for their clients and themselves. thermaBliss Shells are activated by the thermaBliss heated charges that are offered in three different thermal applications. Lava Shells generate their thermal mineral energy for 45+ minutes to maximize touch time, ensuring clients receive maximum value from their massage experience. The radiant heat of thermaBliss Shells stimulates deep tissue and muscle relaxation, vasodilation for increased local blood flow, skin hydration, and it accelerates the molecular action of active topicals in every skincare product for the more effective outcomes.

Glacial Shells developed by combining the company's Glacial Blend Charge with the Cowrie Shell offers a skin calming enhancement to any facial. The Glacial Shell application stimulates vasoconstriction to reduce redness, as well as to minimize puffiness, dark circles and helps to suppress acne flare-ups while firming skin. Single-use heating/cooling sachets and non-porous surfaces allow quick cleaning in under two minutes to ensure client exclusive, sanitary treatments.

ThermaHerbal Poultice elevates traditional Thai stem massage to a whole new level with two unique self-heating herbal blends, Detox & Energize and Relax & Renew. Both activate in three minutes with warm water to deliver client exclusive, lasting thermal wellness treatments over 90+ minutes. These exquisite combinations of Asian natural anti-inflammatory herbs, exotic spices, and delicate flowers are wrapped in fine muslin and create a powerful herbal tea elixir of detoxification and relaxation while encouraging emotional wellbeing and balance.

ThermaFusion Facial Masque™

This one-of-a-kind moist heat-infusing masque effectively stimulates the skin's natural processes of vasodilation and self-hydration, while accelerating the molecular action of the skincare active topicals and providing heat-induced client relaxation. Used with the moist side down pre-extraction, it replaces hot towels and steamers to soften sebum, open pores, and increase circulation to the treated area with optimized hydration for up to 10x permeability. Applied with the dry side against the skin as a heated occlude finishing masque, it accelerates the speed to efficacy by driving in the key ingredients to elevate the outcome of any facial. Activates easily in just two minutes with warm water.
